Listen 'UP'! Axon Entertainment has a Grammy Contender!

Grammy Award Winning Producer, Chuck Ebert, moving 'UP' again!

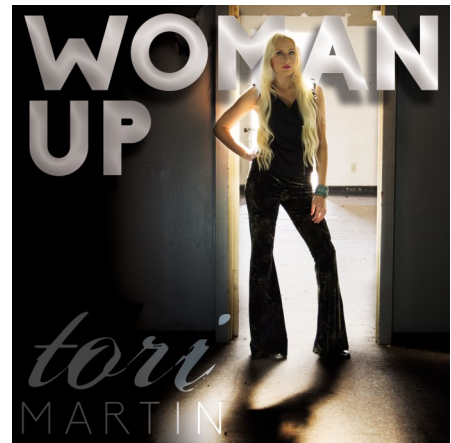

Executive producer, Chuck Ebert, has teamed up with artist, Tori Martin, and has landed the dynamic single, 'WOMAN UP', for a Grammy. Featured in two categories, Country Solo Performance and Best Country Song, "WOMAN UP", has had instant recognition with a #1 ranking and 51 thousand followers on ReverbNation, 47 thousand on Facebook and landed at #21 on the Texas Charts.

"WOMAN UP is bluesy and stomping, with a female-empowerment lyric.
It's the attitude that counts here!" – Robert Oermann, Music Row Magazine

This isn't the first time that Axon Entertainment has known success. Chuck has been nominated Eight Times for a Grammy and is a Three Time Dove Award Nominee. He has produced/engineered many nationally acclaimed artists like Don Henley, Dixie Chicks, Kris Kristofferson and many more.

Chuck won a Grammy for his work on the Best Southern, Country or Bluegrass Gospel Album: "We Called Him Mr. Gospel Music" — The James Blackwood Tribute Album.

It's no wonder that his recording studio, The Cabin in Azle, TX, has been featured in MIX magazine. And the Axon Record Label has recently expanded to include his hometown, Shreveport, La. When asked about the success with "WOMAN UP", Chuck replies with a chuckle, "We are up against the behemoth country music industry but we have a shot!"

"WOMAN UP is sure to be an anthem for women everywhere!
Tori absolutely delivers a 'knock it out of the park' HOME RUN!"

– Chuck Ebert, Grammy Award Winning Producer

"WOMAN UP" can be found on iTunes, Spotify, Amazon, YouTube, Facebook, Beats Music, CD Baby, and radio everywhere.
