

Reflection and Renewal ...for the long haul

PAX CHRISTI MICHIGAN
ANNOUNCES....

Our 21st Annual Retreat!

"Conversations with Dr. Gail Presbey"

PLAN NOW to join us for our 21st Annual PCM Retreat, October 16th through 18th, with GAIL PRESBEY. Gail is a Philosophy professor who teaches Peace and Social Justice Studies, as well as African Studies, at University of Detroit Mercy. She also directs the James Carney Latin American Solidarity Archives there, and coordinates public programming on peace and justice issues in Latin America. Gail's method of teaching is to connect philosophy and philosophical issues to our daily lives, and often uses poetry, music, and media to demonstrate these things. She will be highlighting historical examples that demonstrate this very thing. Gail has been a Pax Christi member for over 30 years. We are thrilled to share this time with her.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW - - SPACE IS LIMITED!

STAYING FAITHFUL TO THE PEACE MOVEMENT WHEN HOPES ARE DASHED, POSITIVE ACTIONS ARE STALLED, WHEN YOUR "ONE STEP FORWARD" IS MET WITH "TWO STEPS BACK".

WHERE DO WE FIND OUR SUSTENANCE?

HOW DO WE NURTURE OURSELVES AND ONE ANOTHER?

October 16th – 18th, 2015

The Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center

On Higgins Lake in beautiful Roscommon, Michigan

What is a Retreat? A retreat is a time away from our ordinary activities in order to focus on our purpose. In the brief moments when we allow ourselves to stop and "be", we notice how few of our moments are lived consciously. A retreat provides refreshment, enlightenment, and a new consciousness of the meaning of living life while embracing the direction the Spirit gives to each of us.

We hope you can join us for this wonderful weekend!

WE'VE ATTEMPTED TO KEEP COSTS TO A MINIMUM. WE HOPE THIS WILL HELP MEET YOUR PERSONAL NEEDS FOR RENEWAL!

[See Reverse for Schedule & Registration Information]

The MacMullan Conference Center is located on beautiful Higgins Lake, in the center of northern lower Michigan. We anticipate a wonderful opportunity to "commune" with nature!
