ADC-ICTY

ADVOCACY TRAINING

Drafting Before the International Tribunals

The panel will discuss and offer practical training on drafting before the international tribunals – through the stages of an international criminal case; pre-trial, trial and appeal. All panelists have a wealth of experience before the majority of the international tribunals and are as such well placed to offer advice and strategic guidance on successful drafting approaches. In addition, all counsel have received rigorous training on drafting through their domestic bar courses and obligations.

This half-day training (9.30-13.30) will be conducted by Natalie von Wistinghausen (Counsel, STL), Catriona Murdoch (Barrister, 1 Crown Office Row), Sarah Bafadhel (Barrister, 9 Bedford Row, STL) and Joe Holmes (Barrister, 9 Bedford Row, ICTY and MICT).
