

Pollination Guelph

9TH ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

With Keynote Speaker
Heather Holm, Author of
'Pollinators of Native Plants'

Saturday, April 2nd, 2016

9am - 4pm

Dublin St. United Church
66 Suffolk W, Guelph ON

9:00am: Registration

9:30am: Victoria MacPhail, Pollination Guelph, "Welcome & Updates on Pollination Guelph"

9:45am: Joyce Cheng & Spencer McGregor, Ontario Nature Youth Council, "Updates from the Ontario Nature Youth Council"

10:05am: Nigel Raine, University of Guelph, "Pesticide impacts on bees: from individual behaviour to pollination services."

10:40am: Break & Refreshments

11:00am: Jim Chaput, OMFARA, "Peponapis pruinosa, Pumpkin's Passionate Pollinator"

11:35am: Maureen Temme, Advisory Committee on Environment, London, "London as a Pollinator Sanctuary: Turns in the Path"

12:10pm: Lunch provided by Magnolia Catering

1:00pm: Keynote Presentation, Heather Holm, "Attracting Pollinators and Beneficial Insects with Native Plants"

2:00pm: Break

2:20pm: Speed-networking Workshop

3:00pm: Monarch Panel Discussion

- Dr. Ryan Norris, University of Guelph
- Janette Lewis-Cridland, Monarch Teachers Network
- Don Davis, Monarch Watch
- Leslie Work, Paisley Road Public School

Pre-Registration by March 27th

$40

($30 Students and Seniors)

Pre-register at www.pollinationguelph.ca

After March 27th and at the Door (cheque/cash only)

$45

($35 Students and Seniors)

Refreshments and Lunch Included

For more information visit:
www.pollinationguelph.ca

Dublin Street United Church is fully wheelchair accessible, has free parking, and is within walking distance from public transport.

ALSO: Sale Items, Display Booths, Photo Contest, Seed Exchange (Don't forget to bring your own seeds; donations in lieu of seeds are also accepted for swapping)