

Anthony Carroll, ESQ
Vice President

With over 35 years as a corporate lawyer & business advisor in the areas of international trade and investment, Tony is keenly focused on sub-Saharan Africa. Currently working to transfer new technology and methodology to the region, his passion for Africa, its business and overall development date back to his Peace Corps service in Botswana in the late 1970s.

Also serving as an adjunct professor, at the School of Advanced International Studies, Johns Hopkins University, and Senior Associate at the Center for Strategic & International Studies, he has served on the Africa advisory boards at EXIM Bank, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation, and the U.S. Trade Representative; and was also a congressional nominee to the Board of the Millennium Challenge Corporation. With degrees in economics, public administration & law from the Universities of Denver + Wisconsin - Madison, he's concurrently director to the Acorus Fund in Hong Kong, and on the Board of Visitors at the University of Wisconsin - Madison.