

A fashion show of strength.

ROCK THE RUNWAY, which will take place at Savoy 1620 on Thursday, June 20, is a New York-inspired runway show featuring the latest fashion trends from Central Arkansas designers and boutiques.

PROCEEDS will benefit the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS), which will use its portion to enhance its programs for women with cancer, and Fighting Fancy, which will provide gift bags of personal care products for women who are being treated for cancer by a UAMS physician, in addition to other women experiencing cancer around the world.

UAMS WINTHROP P. ROCKEFELLER CANCER INSTITUTE is a center of excellence at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. As Arkansas' premier cancer research and treatment facility, the Cancer Institute offers comprehensive medical treatment driven by state-of-the-art research to patients from every Arkansas county, all 50 states and about 40 countries.

FIGHTING FANCY is a non-profit organization providing chemo bags to young women 15-39 going through chemotherapy. Heather Mason Owens founded Fighting Fancy at age 28 when she was diagnosed with Breast Cancer. Bags include the heart tank and necklace Owens wore during each chemo. Also included are beauty, dental and hair products she found helpful during her treatment. Owens goal is to provide women with hope and the tools necessary to keep Fighting Fancy.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES for Rock the Runway are outlined in the enclosed materials. We have designed sponsorship levels that fit every charitable budget.

We will be in touch to answer your questions and, hopefully, secure your sponsorship of this fabulous fundraiser that will further support for women diagnosed with cancer.

Thank you for your consideration.
