

Run-on Sentences Exercise #2

Directions: Write S for complete sentence or RO for run-on in the blank.

- 1) The chocolate chips can be melted in the microwave the eggs can be added one at a time in the bowl.

---

- 2) David's cat cringed at the sight of the can of flea powder.

---

- 3) Mountain lions roamed the area long before residents built their homes here.

---

- 4) Shop once a week stick to a preplanned grocery list.

---

- 5) Answering the survey honestly was difficult for Mark.

---

6) Marnie loves scary movies nevertheless her boyfriend refuses to watch them.

---

7) Mrs. Zarilli won the Best Boss in the business contest last year.

---

8) Your buttermilk biscuits taste superb they are the best I've ever tasted.

---

9) Linda called the bank to arrange for a loan.

---

10) Margarine costs less than butter it contains less saturated fat.

---

Run-on Sentences Exercise #2

ANSWERS

Directions: Write S for complete sentence or RO for run-on in the blank.

- 1) The chocolate chips can be melted in the microwave; the eggs can be added one at a time in the bowl.

RO

---

- 2) David's cat cringed at the sight of the can of flea powder.

S

---

- 3) Mountain lions roamed the area long before residents built their homes here.

S

---

- 4) Shop once a week; stick to a preplanned grocery list.

RO

---

- 5) Answering the survey honestly was difficult for Mark.

S

---

- 6) Marnie loves scary movies; nevertheless, her boyfriend refuses to watch them.

RO

---

- 7) Mrs. Zarron won the Best Boss in the Business contest last year.

S

---

- 8) Your buttermilk biscuits taste superb. They are the best I've ever tasted.

RO

---

- 9) Linda called the bank to arrange for a loan.

S

---

- 10) Margarine costs less than butter; it contains less saturated fat.

RO

---