

Pre-Reading Skills Development

..... CPD Training .....

Best selling author, John Murray, presents a Professional Development course that will help the teaching and learning of pupils of all ages as they step towards reading comprehension!

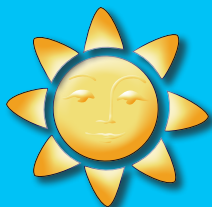

Specifically designed to work in tandem with the popular Reading Skills Development training, this stand alone course offers practical advice on how to encourage even the most reluctant of readers to access and interpret what they read.

Using a range of texts from across both Key Stages, core comprehension skills promoted during this course are:

- Reading for general understanding and gist ✓
- Reading in order to retrieve specific information ✓
- Strengthening and extending personal vocabulary ✓

To cater for your school's individual needs, each training course can be delivered in-house in one of two ways:

Half day course

Two twilight Sessions

This course is suitable for both teachers and learning support assistants.

Book with the Reading Skills Development course and save £100!