

Public Seminar and Annual General Meeting - Ravenna

30th Sept – 2nd Oct 2015

Piran Declaration 1998

Walled Towns are unique inheritances from times long past and should be treasured, maintained and safeguarded from neglect, damage and destruction and passed on into perpetuity as irreplaceable

'Timestones of History'.

Seminar Fee just €100

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend the annual general meeting of the European Walled Towns, which will be held in your historic City of Ravenna between the 30th September and the 3rd October 2015.

During the Meeting interesting presentations will be made, which will be followed by an open discussion, and exchange of ideas and experiences. We shall also discuss the further strengthening of the collaboration and cooperation between our member towns and other organisations with other European Towns and Cities.

Ravenna is a historic City and has a twinning agreement with one of our member town of Chichester in the UK, I believe that this Meeting should serve to establish relations between Ravenna and the European Walled Towns based on the mutual and common interest of our town members and Ravenna. Indeed I look forward to inviting Ravenna to be member.

With many best wishes

Joseph Spiteri

President - European Walled Towns

European Walled Towns

European Walled Towns (EWT) is the international association for sustainable development of walled towns, walled cities and fortified historic towns in Europe.

EWT aims to promote the many mutual interests shared by walled towns; EWT wishes to maintain and strengthen the historic walled towns for future generations by applying for European funding and taking part in European project.

The EWT (then called the Walled Towns Friendship Circle, WTFC) was founded in Tenby (South Wales) in 1989. It is the International Forum to promote the many mutual interests shared by walled towns in Europe.

At present the EWT has a hundred walled town members in more than 20 countries. In addition ten organisations involved with walled towns and twenty five individuals are associate members.

Our Website

Recently we launched our new EWT website. Our new website design is based on a modern and user friendly interface. Through our website one can view the list of town members and can also keep up to date with all events and news related to the European Walled Towns. Users can also explore pages about all member walled towns including information and pictures and links. Further information on walled towns more generally is available on the Academic Adviser's website www.walledtownsresearch.org
