

PARENT-TO-PARENT SUPPORT GROUP

Opens in San Clemente

BILY (Because I Love You) San Clemente

“Before we came to BILY, our family was really hurting, both parents and children.”

Because I Love You is a parent-to-parent support group run by trained volunteers, also referred to as “Professional Parents”. Many of the volunteers are parents who have had success with the program and are now committed to helping others.

Whether parents are struggling with an adult child who is not moving forward in life, a younger child who is headed in the wrong direction, attitudes of entitlement or disrespect or drug and alcohol abuse, learning to implement the BILY principles can help navigate through whatever parenting challenges are being faced.

BILY is not a quick fix. It is a process that requires time and commitment, but the pay-off can be immeasurable. Many parents have come to BILY feeling depressed and hopeless, but after committing to working the program, they begin to experience more confidence and peace of mind as they learn more effective ways of parenting.

For things to change, parents must do something different, which is why BILY is an action-based program. The leaders will work with parents to develop a personalized plan for their particular household and help learn different responses to their child’s behavior.

BILY promotes structure and consistency on the part of the parent, and responsibility and accountability on the part of the child. We offer a non-judgmental, caring environment where confidentiality is strictly maintained.

BILY meetings are free of charge. Operating costs are paid for by the generous donations of individuals and corporate sponsors who support the mission of BILY San Clemente.

BILY is a non-faith-based program and free of charge. Please refer to our website for meeting dates and times. Reservations are recommended www.bilysc.org
