I'm no stranger to interesting events IN Wilmington, I live work and play here nearly every single day of the year, and I've done so since the day I was born. I spent my first nine years of school at St. Elizabeth's, regularly attending the Blue Rocks, Brandywine Zoo, Delaware History Museum and events like Brandywine Festival of the Arts. My brother bought baseball gear from Al's Sporting Goods, and as a teenager, I recall seeing bands like Green Day, Third Eye Blind, Weird Al Yankovic and Sugar Ray at Kahunaville.

Yet somehow, it wasn't until I took a job with OperaDelaware in 2007, and social media became integrated into my daily life, that I really started to understand the true magic of Downtown Wilmington—something you really can only experience first hand. In 2011, I moved downtown and began working with INWilmington, and have had the privilege of sharing Wilmington's story with you, from my point of view, ever since.

But now I want to hear your stories #inWilm! Because the greatest joys in life are found IN the moment—share them with us!

Delicious? Share it.
INcredible? Share it.
Unbelievable? Share it.

By communicating together we can find, nurture and spread the energy in our town. Sharing our experiences makes each day and night IN Wilmington even more vibrant and memorable than ever before.

Brianna Hansen, Campaign Manager

#INWILM

Because that's where it's at.

It's going to be a long day and you're up earlier than you want to be, so you might as well swing through Libby's for some breakfast. Oh snap, is that Eddie Izzard? THE Eddie Izzard? Yup, it is. He won't mind if you ask for a selfie - do it. Then share it, obviously. Wow. Only #inWilm...

for you it's First Friday and Art on the Town is always free, plus your friends are headed to Nomad Bar afterwards for some live music and there's never a cover - now it's time to tell Wilmington how you stay #inBudget.

#INTUNE

Because music moves you.

The new tour is announced for your favorite artist of all time. You do a double-take - Wilmington? He's stopping IN Wilmington?! Now, fast forward a few months. You can't believe this is actually happening! Front row, just feet from Willie Nelson. Never in all of your life did you think you would be THIS close to your idol. And you certainly wouldn't have ended up here if you'd taken that drive to the big city. Go ahead, brag about how YOU'RE getting #inTune.

#INBUDGET

Because ends need to meet.

It's been a rough week. You got a flat, had to take the dog to the vet and just moments ago ran over your cell phone with that newly inflated tire. But lucky

#ALLINFUN

Because you're IN for their fun..

Well, this is your life now. It's Thirsty Thursday and you're watching... The Wiggles. LIVE. But then you look over and see her, she's wandered a few feet with her friends for a better view. Smiling from ear to ear, completely enamored - her blankey isn't even in tow. This is what you call #ALLinFun.

#DIGIN

Because you are what you eat.

You made eye contact and now your mouth's watering. First bite, eyes go wide, you let the taste sink in with a deep sigh.

Instantaneously, your mouth is on fire, sweat dripping from every pore...These are the best wings in town. Wilmington needs to know - this is where you #DigIN.

THE TASTE OF TROLLEY • SEPTEMBER 24

Our Favorite Way to #DigIN This Month #inWilm

Beer & wine, food, a sidewalk sale, and games & prizes for all ages are all on hand for this celebration of life IN Trolley Square! Neighborhood restaurants team up with a variety of craft brewers, wineries, and distillers to provide numerous options for tastings and small plates. For kids, there'll even be jugglers, magicians, and stilt-walkers roaming the streets. Sip, sample, shop, and stroll!

September Events

Summer's winding down and you haven't really taken the time to enjoy it? Don't sweat it! September is full of cool things for everyone to do—both INdoors and outdoors around our city!

IX PREVIEW WEEKEND | Delaware Art Museum

DELAWARE: A BREW STORY | SEPTEMBER 3 | Blue Ball Barn

To celebrate the explosive growth and the rich legacy of Delaware's craft beer and spirits industry, Friends of Wilmington Parks are throwing a party at Alapocas' stunning Blue Ball Barn. A presentation on the history of Delaware brewing and the Diamond State Brewery—demolished in the 1960s to make way for I-95—will be followed by beer, wine, and spirit tastings, food from WiLDWiCH, and some pretty unique merchandise. We highly encourage you to #DigIN to this annual affair.

WILMINGTON HISPANIC FESTIVAL | SEPTEMBER 9-11 Various Locations #inWilm

This festival has marked the beginning of Hispanic Heritage Month #inWilm for the last 40 years. See, hear, and taste a variety of exhibitions on display throughout this three-day celebration of Hispanic culture. Experience the vibrant colors of the traditional clothing and art, eclectic music, and the aromas and tastes of the many offerings of food and desserts. Of course, don't forget to take IN the parade on Sunday afternoon!

BRANDYWINE FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS | SEPTEMBER 10 & 11 Josephine Gardens at Brandywine Park

Over 20,000 people will see works from over 250 artists at this annual, nationally recognized arts festival IN Wilmington, which has been a tradition along the river for generations! Alongside the paintings, photographs, drawings, and wares showcased, will be live music performances, games, and activities for children, and of course a delicious array of edible fare provided by local restaurants and vendors.

ANALOG-A-GO-GO
Bellevue State Park

DOG FISH HEAD'S ANALOG-A-GO-GO SEPTEMBER 17 | Bellevue State Park

Idaho indie rock royals Built to Spill, New Orleans' Preservation Hall Jazz Band, and Brooklyn emcee Talib Kweli headline our state's premiere craft brewery's ode to vinyl records—which has decided to make its home this year #inWilm! An outdoor market will feature local artisan craftworks along with a culinary trailer park featuring some of the best food trucks in the region. But we know it wouldn't be a Dogfish Head festival without the beer, so just trust us when we say there will be plenty of ways to whet your palette.

THE WIGGLES: WIGGLE TOWN TOUR SEPTEMBER 22 | The Playhouse

This month's top #ALLinFun pick comes from Australia's very own Fab Four of Fun who are coming halfway around the world to make a stop #inWilm on their 25th anniversary tour. Simon, Emma, Lachy, and Anthony are bringing all their friends with them, too! Dorothy the Dinosaur, Captain Feathersword the Friendly Pirate, Henry the Octopus, and even Wags the Dog will join the crew on stage for a day of singing, dancing, and laughing that is sure to be a blast for kids of all ages!

IX PREVIEW WEEKEND SEPTEMBER 23-25 Delaware Art Museum

This three-day pop-up exhibition is the lead-in to Reading, PA's IX Arts groundbreaking imaginative realism symposium and features the fantasy and science fiction artworks and illustrations of over 16 of the best in the business with a chance to meet the artists themselves! Enjoy live sketching sessions with cosplayers, performances, food trucks, and even an outdoor showing of the latest Star Wars film, The Force Awakens. Geeks are gonna geek out—we salute you.

AN EVENING W/ LYLE LOVETT & ROBERT EARL KEEN • OCTOBER 8 • The Grand

Two giants of the Texas music scene roll INto Wilmington this month for an engaging evening of song and storytelling. Their show has been called “just a couple of friends hanging out” but that does disservice to the brilliant interplay between the two artists which led to sell outs across the western half of the country this past spring. Don't miss out on this month's top #inTune pick!

Join IN the celebration as the Christina Cultural Arts Center enters its 70th year of arts and education programming for Wilmington youth! Philadelphia based jazz trombonist Jermaine Bryson, who recently played the DNC Convention with Kool & The Gang, will be a featured performer at the kickoff event, which will also showcase musical and dance performances from students and instructors.

THE CENTER FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE GRAND OPENING AND GRAND RE-OPENING OF THE DELAWARE HISTORY MUSEUM | OCTOBER 1

Step INside the new Center for African American Heritage on Market Street as it opens its doors to the public for the first time. While you're there, check out the newly renovated Delaware History Museum—featuring brand new exhibits detailing our state's rich history. The long-awaited reopening will begin with a ribbon cutting ceremony, followed by a day full of tours, performances, food trucks, music, and more!

PONG FOR A PURPOSE | OCTOBER 5 | THE MILL

On the first Wednesday of every month, the folks at The Mill, Wilmington's hottest new co-working space, are converting their conference tables to table tennis courts and inviting you to come and show off your skills, all IN support of wonder local causes! Whether you're buying-IN to vie for the cash prize, or simply partaking in delicious food and drinks as you cheer on the players, you're helping support a better Wilmington, so we encourage you to join IN the fun!

MACBETH | OCTOBER 14-23 | Wilmington Drama League

Since the 1930's, the Wilmington Drama League has been a staple IN Wilmington community theater and now they're taking on one of Shakespeare's most notable (and bloody) plays. Macbeth retells the downfall of the Scottish nobleman who was so driven by his perceived fate to be king (a message delivered to him by witches) that it dooms him. Was it all really fate, or was it ambition and free will that urged the man to murder his friends and takeover the throne?

OCTOBER 16 & 23 | Rockwood Museum

Get INto the spirit of the spooky season as members of Delaware Shakespeare Festival read bone-chilling selections from plays, prose, and poetry works of William Shakespeare and Edgar Allen Poe. Take IN old favorites and enjoy a few new exciting twists and turns, all in the gothic halls of Rockwood Mansion. There's only room for 30 souls per performance, making this a unique, unforgettable, and INTimate experience you definitely do not want to miss.

INSIDE THE OPERA STUDIO: BEST
OF BEL CANTO | OCTOBER 21 & 23
OperaDelaware Studios

In Italian, bel canto means beautiful singing. In opera parlance, it refers not only to a certain segment of the repertoire but also to a school of voice which prioritizes the beauty of the sound above all else. So, in layman's terms, these are INcredible singers. Expect to literally feel their vocal prowess vibrating through your very bones as OD's Maestro Jeffrey Miller leads the way for Soprano Francesca Mondanaro, Mezzo-Soprano Chrystal E. Williams, Tenor William Davenport, and Bass-Baritone Daniel Mobbs.

BIL LEPP - STORYTELLER
OCTOBER 23 | Marshall Steam Museum

The art of storytelling can be quite a powerful and emotional tool that instantly connects audiences, and well, nothing beats a good story. With an impressive collection of awards and appearances under his belt, Bil Lepp is revered for his hysterical injections of little white lies into real life events that ultimately transform into outlandish, side-splitting tales that feel bigger than life itself. Bring the whole family and prepare for a night of genuine fun and laughter that you haven't felt in years!

RIVERFRONT RINK OPENS FOR THE SEASON | NOVEMBER 25

Get prepared for chilly #ALLinFun adventures on the Riverfront #inWilm

While most will be out hitting up the retail deals on the biggest shopping day of the year, anyone looking for a break from the hustle should come down to Justison Landing Green and strap on a pair of blades as the seasonal ice skating rink officially reopens! A few dozen laps around the open-air ice rink surrounded by the twinkling lights and decorations are sure to chase away any Scrooge-like symptoms, restoring you back to holiday happiness.

November Events

Sweater weather is upon us! Show off your style and warm up a bit from the crisp autumn air with these relaxing INdoor activities. You'll need some time for yourself before heading into the holidays!

WILMINGTON BEER WEEK | Various Locations #inWilm

AN IDEAL HUSBAND | NOVEMBER 3-6 | Wilmington Drama League

When Oscar Wilde penned his political satire in 1895, few would have likely expected the major themes of the play—women's role in society, the dangers of blackmail and corruption, anti-upper class sentiment—to resonate so well nearly 125 years later. Nevertheless, some things never change, and so Wilmington Drama League will stage this witty, dramatic, and philosophical classic by one of the great playwrights of the 19th century.

WILMINGTON BEER WEEK | NOVEMBER 5-12

Over 60 breweries and 13 restaurants will take part in the city's celebration of craft beer. Each night of the week will have something for both beer enthusiasts and foodies. Hop around from the Riverfront to Downtown, Little Italy to Trolley Square, and everywhere in between and #DigIN to creative culinary offerings are paired with special—and even hard to find—concoctions from some of the most cutting edge breweries around the country, plus, brewer meet-and-greets, tap takeovers, and so much more!

WHAT'S FOR DINNER? A TALE OF TWO GARDENS WALKING TOUR NOVEMBER 6 | Hagley Museum & Library

The legacy of the du Pont gunpowder industry is about more than just the rise of a wealthy family. Workers at the powder mills often lived on the property as well, and this tour will examine two gardens at the yard: one that fed the du Pont home, and one that supplied food to those workers. Visitors will be shown how the different demands of both gardens guided their growth and production, as well as an INSide look at the du Pont family home.

One can't argue that in the right setting, a traditional musical celebration of Christmas time and the holidays warms the heart like nothing else. As such, the return by popular demand of The Candlelight Theatre's yuletide season festivities will once again spread joy to any and everyone in attendance. With performances of holiday favorites and several new features, this show is sure to get you IN the spirit of the seasons! | Opens November 19 |

EMBROIDERY: THE LANGUAGE OF ART | THROUGH JANUARY 8 Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library

It wasn't until the 1700's that the concept of the fine arts became distinct from that of decorative art. Before that, the design of a quilt or tapestry was no less inspired in its creation than a painting or sculpture. This latest Winterthur exhibit examines the transition the art of embroidery subsequently undertook, and additionally how products of that skill—now seen as more of a craft—evolved along with the definition.

PEACE, LOVE & POETRY | DECEMBER 1 | World Cafe Live at the Queen

Peace Love & Poetry combines music and spoken word to share poetic messages of positivity backed by a live band. Their poetry performance production has toured successfully around the region to much acclaim. Producer SuiteFranchon hosts this "Soul Opera Edition" featuring stories of love and life told through the songs and poems of local artists from the Delaware and Pennsylvania region, plus, special guests.

PAINT & SIP: WINTER CARDINALS
DECEMBER 1 | DuPont Environmental Education Center

Envision this—you're perched high above the Peterson Refuge marveling at the gorgeous winter landscape where the city, river, and marsh meet, you have a glass of wine in one hand and a paintbrush in the other. The sun is starting to set and you can already tell you're IN for one magnificent view... Enjoy a relaxing, INspired evening with friends as you complete a canvas of "Winter Cardinals" in just two hours with instruction by local Chester County artist Jane Henry during this installment of Paint & Sip.

CITY THEATER COMPANY | LA CAGE
AUX FOLLES | DECEMBER 2-17
The Black Box

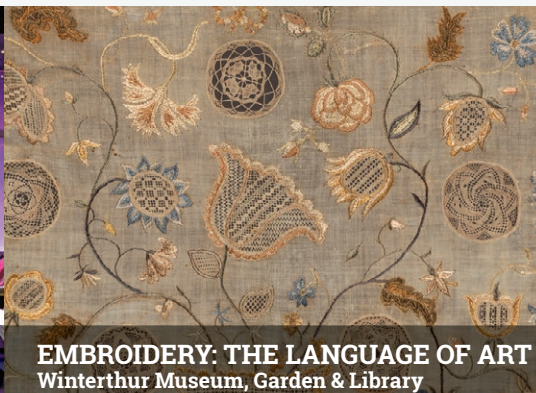

Popularized by the 1996 Robin Williams/Nathan Lane film adaptation, the original musical (itself based on a early 1970s French play) gets the eccentric CTC treatment this winter from director Michael Gray. Already a proven comedic, musical, critical, and commercial success both on and off Broadway, just wait until you see how the theme of the absurdity of prejudice is handled by the group's INcredibly talented performers and musicians!

HOLIDAY HOUSE TOUR: HOUSES W/
HISTORY | DECEMBER 10 | Delaware Art
Museum Various Locations #inWilm

Have you noticed the mansion on Kennett Pike, which has undergone a remarkable renovation? Or ever been to Oberon Estates? Don't miss the unique opportunity to tour five of Wilmington's most spectacular historic houses dressed to impress for the holidays! This unique event features homes that will not be opened to the public again for a generation—if ever. When you're done, stop by the Museum's Annual Winter Arts Festival, featuring 20 regional artisans and live holiday music.
