

Doors Open for Music at Southminster

FALL 2014

Artistic Director: Roland Graham

WEDNESDAY October 8th 2014

'Open Arms'

Program

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1. Open Arms | Steve Boudreau |
| 2. I Cover The Waterfront | Johnny Green & Edward Heyman |
| 3. Chorale | Steve Boudreau |
| 4. Double Jointed | Steve Boudreau |
| 5. Surf's Up | Brian Wilson & Van Dyke Parks |
| 6. Welcome Aboard | Steve Boudreau |
| 7. Pannonica | Thelonius Monk |
| 8. A Moth's Yard | Steve Boudreau |
| 9. Un Poco Loco | Bud Powell |

Steve Boudreau, piano

Pianist Steve Boudreau recently returned to his hometown of Ottawa, Canada. In 2010 he completed his Masters' degree at the New England Conservatory in Boston. Following that he toured Canada and the US for three years with various musical theatre productions. In 2012 he was invited to speak about working in the piano/voice setting at a summer program in Kiefersfelden, Germany. He is highly in demand as a session musician and has played on many local artists' albums. Under his own name, he has released three albums. A trio recording with vocalist Laura Grill and bass player Brad Barrett, a duo record of original music with guitarist Garry Elliott, and his solo piano album, Open Arms. He currently teaches privately and at Carleton University.

www.steveboudreaumusic.com

NEXT DOFMS CONCERT – Wednesday October 15 2014

Exploring the spectrum of violin and piano music: Beethoven to Shostakovich

Beethoven – Sonata No. 8 in G major, Op. 30, no. 3

Shostakovich – Ten Preludes for Violin and Piano, Op.34 (excerpts)

Fauré – Sonata No. 1 in A major, Op. 13, mov. #1

Maurice Dela – Sonatine

Brendan Conway, violin & Tomoko Inui, piano

NEXT DOFMS JAZZ CONCERT – Wednesday Oct 29 2014

'Tender Mercies'

A jazz duo of saxophone and piano, featuring songs from 19th-century Appalachia, 1940's Hollywood, a few jazz standards, and a little bit of the blues.

Peter Woods, saxophone & Brian Browne, piano