In accordance with government child safeguarding guidelines, we can only allow a maximum of five under 16's per 1 guardians, 2 guardians a required for groups who will stay overnight,

Dear Parent / Legal Guardian - PLEASE NOTE:

In order for your child to take part in this event they must accompanied by yourself or you must make arrangements to personally appoint two guardians who are over 18 and whom you deem responsible and trustworthy. We would ask that both you and the guardians you appoint read the condition below and then sign to agree with these guidelines. Youth 2000 cannot accept any responsibility or offer supervision for minors at the retreat. As you will appreciate, we need to do our utmost to keep all the people joining us for the retreat safe at all times. On behalf of Youth 2000 we thank you for arranging for you children to attend our event and pray it is a real blessing for them.

Please also read our Entry & Accommodation Guidelines & Safety Guidelines found on our website.

In the case of GROUPS who are not a family:

- Minors cannot be left unsupervised at any time.
- Youth 2000 adheres to government recommendations that all groups containing persons under the age of 16 taking part in our retreat are accompanied by responsible guardians at a ratio of 1 adult to 5 children.
- All guardians must be over 18 years of age.
- For groups who are sleeping on site all under 16's must be accompanied by at least 2 RESPONSIBLE GUARDIANS OF THE SAME GENDER since guardians are asked to sleep in the same shared dorm rooms as those in their care and all accommodation is either male or female.
- GUARDIANS must stay together with their group at all times in the sleeping area (overnight), so no guardian is alone with their group.
- For groups who are sleeping on site PARENTS and GUARDIANS should be aware that groups will be sharing dorm rooms with other under 16 groups & their accompanying guardians of the same gender and it is the responsibility of the guardians to make sure that the young people in their care are never left unaccompanied.
- Both guardians are fully responsible for their group, and need to be available at all times to act in the event of an emergency.
- Youth 2000 cannot accept any responsibility or offer supervision for minors at the retreat.

In the case of FAMILIES:

- Minors cannot be left unsupervised at any time.
- Parents must supervise their children under 16 at all times on the retreat and must sleep in the same accommodation. (If a Father and daughter or a mother and son wish to attend the retreat please contact the office in advance so as to arrange a separate classroom.)
- Youth 2000 cannot accept any responsibility or offer supervision for minors at the retreat.

I understand that filming and photography may take place during the retreat, and give consent for any footage which includes my son/daughter to be used by Youth 2000.
