Dear Member,

Congratulations to the 2011 Human Factors Prize Winner!

HFES congratulates Dietrich Manzey and Maria Luz of the Berlin Institute of Technology, and Stefan Mueller, Andreas Dietz, Juergen Meixensberger, and Gero Strauss of University Hospital Leipzig, who have been awarded the 2011 Human Factors Prize for their article, “Automation in Surgery: The Impact of Navigated-Control Assistance on Performance, Workload, Situation Awareness, and Acquisition of Surgical Skills.”

The award will be presented at a special session on Wednesday, September 21, at the upcoming 55th Annual Meeting, where the recipients will present their work.

Congratulations also to the four runners-up for their outstanding research. All five papers will be published in the December issue of Human Factors. Runners-up are listed in alphabetical order.

- “Continuously Informing Vibrotactile Displays in Support of Attention Management and Multitasking in Anesthesiology,” by Thomas K. Ferris and Nadine Sarter.
- “Development and Validation of a Virtual Reality Simulator: Human Factors Input to Interventional Radiology Training,” by S.J. Johnson, S. Guediri, C. Kilkenny, and P. Clough
- “Improving Medication Management through the Redesign of the Hospital Code Cart Medication Drawer,” by Justin B. Rousek and M. Susan Hallbeck
- “Promoting Colorectal Cancer Screening in Outreach Campaigns,” by Tamera R. Schneider, Markus A. Feufel, and Hans J. Berkel

Submit Your Research for the 2012 Health Care Symposium
