

Everything you need to deliver
Management Apprenticeships
to the new Trailblazer standards

The ultimate Management Apprenticeship service

ILM has worked with specialist businesses across the City & Guilds Group to develop an end-to-end Management Trailblazer Apprenticeship solution.

In preparation for the new funding regulations we have combined our expertise in professional training, qualifications, learning content, technology and assessment, to offer unrivalled support to organisations and training providers delivering the new standards.

Choose end-to-end support, or mix and match services to suit your business needs:

- Consultancy – Our expert team will review your existing training programmes and align them to the new standards.
- Qualifications – Two new ILM qualifications at Level 3 (Team Leader/Supervisor) and Level 5 (Operations/Departmental Manager) launching in Spring 2017.
- Training content – A comprehensive suite of interactive digital learning resources.
- Online delivery – The PIVOT platform fuses award winning LMS, e-portfolio and funding interfaces to manage qualifications, learners, assessors, administrators, funding and data, all in one place.
- Assessment – Tailored assessment tasks to support delivery of the qualifications during on-programme study.
- Digital credentials – Online recognition of candidates' achievements through digital badges.
- End Point Assessment – ILM is intending to be one of the first organisations to offer End Point Assessment for the new management standards (pending a decision by the Skills Funding Agency).

Why ILM?

ILM is the UK's leading specialist in leadership and management apprenticeships. Last year, we qualified over 14,000 management apprentices – seven times more than any other management body.

We're working hand-in-hand with employer Trailblazer groups to develop the next generation of Management Apprenticeship Trailblazer Standards.

ILM qualifications at Level 3 and Level 5 are fully mapped to the new Management Apprenticeship Trailblazer Standards.
