

LE STUDIUM® RESEARCH CHAIR

Indicative application format

Important note:

Please note that this document is designed to share information between partners of a project. Applications must be completed online on the LE STUDIUM® website. An application submitted by email will NOT be valid.

To submit an online application, you need to register on LE STUDIUM® website. After validation of your account, you will receive an email inviting you to complete your online proposal.

The online application form has the following sections.

1- Laboratory Host Scientist

Give the following details concerning the laboratory host scientist: first name, surname, title, birth date, nationality, laboratory, institution, professional address, phone number, email, website.

2- Summary of the proposal

Write a summary of the proposal in English and French; it may be used in public media if the proposal is funded.

Content limited to 2000 characters for each summary.

3- Track record of the correspondent

Highlight the career achievements of the applicant and awards including a list of peer-reviewed publications in the last five years. Identify up to five publications from this list relevant to this proposal EXCLUDING submitted papers. Book chapters and books should be listed separately.

Content limited to 8000 characters.

4- Partners involved in the proposal

Partners share a common understanding of the overall project and understand the significance of their contribution to the overall project outcome.

-> For each partner give the following details: first name, surname, title, birth date, nationality, laboratory, institution, professional address, phone number, email, website.

-> Partner involvement: role, contribution and highlight the career achievements in research or industry/enterprise activities including a list of peer reviewed publications or industry/enterprise deliverables and awards in the last five years. Identify up to five publications from this list relevant to this proposal excluding submitted papers.

Content limited to 8000 characters for each partners.

For the chair programme, at least three laboratories need to be partners in the project.

5- Proposed mission

Describe the proposed mission, which must include an international dimension and can incorporate contributions as diverse as, but not exclusively:

- A critical analysis of the operation and organisation of a scientific sector with recommendations for its development,
- Organisation of an emerging domain of research and teaching,
- Organizing a set of conferences, winter or summer schools with a unifying goal,
- With the approval of the University, a contribution to the evolution of a master program etc.

Content limited to 12000 characters.

6- Proposed research

Describe the background, aims, how will each partner contributes and coordinates their involvement to achieve the desired outcomes, including bibliography.

Content limited to 12000 characters.

7- Details of the proposed chair holder

-> Give the following details concerning the proposed chair holder: first name, surname, title, birth date, nationality, laboratory, institution, professional address, phone number, email, website, scientific specialty.

-> Track record of the proposed chair holder

Explain what the applicant will be able to contribute to the mission and the research, including skills and experience, demonstrated ability to work with research teams and industrial partners. Experience working in multidisciplinary teams and team building experience is held in high regard. Highlight the career achievements of the applicant and awards including a list of peer-reviewed publications in the last five years. Identify up to five publications from the list relevant to this proposal EXCLUDING submitted papers. Book chapters and books should be listed separately. The applicant must also provide a separate CV document.

Content limited to 12000 characters.

-> Proposed date of residence

-> Financial support to the chair

- Operating cost: host laboratory or partners contribution to the research activity operating costs.
- Salary: host laboratory or partners contribution to the salary of LE STUDIUM research fellow.
- Event costs: host laboratory or partners contribution to the cost of events involving LE STUDIUM research fellow.

8- Collaborators

Collaborators provide high-level expertise on an aspect of the overall project to ensure a project specific outcome.

-> Give the following details for each collaborator: first name, surname, title, birth date, nationality, laboratory, institution, professional address, phone number, email, website.

-> Collaborator role

Content limited to 4000 characters for each partner.

9- Reviewers

Recommended reviewers should NOT have co-authored a publication with the laboratory host scientist, project partners, collaborators or with the proposed Chair holder in the last five years.

Give the following details for each reviewers: first name, name, title, nationality, laboratory, institution, professional address, phone number, email, website.

10- Documents

A document for signature needs to be downloaded, signed and uploaded to the online proposal before the proposal is submitted.