Film Night

Tangerines is a film about War in Georgia, Apkhazeti region in 1992. Local Apkhazians are fighting to break free from Georgia. An Estonian village between the mountains has become empty, almost everyone has returned to their homeland. Ivo, an Estonian man, has stayed to harvest his crops of tangerines. In a bloody conflict at his door, wounded men are left behind, and Ivo is forced to take them in. But they are from opposite sides of the war.

When: Wednesday, 21st October 2015 - Doors open at 6pm for nibbles & drinks. The film will start at 7pm.

Where: Nambour Civic Centre - C-Square Tower, 52-64 Currie St, Nambour QLD 4560.

Cost: $20 per person. Tickets will be available for purchase from Monday, 21st September and can be purchased by phoning the Nambour Civic Centre on 5475 7777.

Additional information: The bar will be open from 6pm serving alcohol, soft drinks, tea & coffee. Raffle tickets will also be available for purchase on the night.

Important: It is kindly asked that all Buddies members attending bring a plate to share - savoury is preferable due to the screening time. Marnie Greer, the Buddies intern from the University of the Sunshine Coast, will be overseeing the food requirements for the night so please email her at marnie.greer@gmail.com detailing what you intend to bring. If you are able to volunteer your time before the film commences to assist with bringing out food please be sure to mention this in your email to Marnie. Ideally there would be at least 6 helpers on the night.

This is sure to be a great night of connecting and learning with others. We hope to see you there!
