

THE SPRING LEAGUE

S H O W C A S E

INFORMATION SHEET

- When: July 10-15, 2017
- Location: San Francisco, California
- Eligibility: Any player who was eligible for the 2017 NFL Draft, or a previous year's NFL draft, is eligible to participate in The Spring League Showcase.
- Format: The Spring League Showcase is a six-day event for professional football talent. Two teams, comprised primarily of former collegiate and NFL players, will take part in joint practices and receive instruction from professional level coaches. Players will be filmed in both 1 on 1's and team drill settings.
- Game: The Spring League Showcase culminates with a regulation game played in accordance to NFL rules.
- Film Access: Both practice and game film, will be provided to all 32 NFL clubs along with CFL teams.
- Costs: In order to reserve your spot in The Spring League Showcase, you must register, as either a resident or commuter, and pay the associated registration fee. Housing and meals will be provided to those players who register under the Resident classification ($650.00). Those players who register as a Commuter ($450.00) must arrange for their own housing and meals.

Registration/Late Registration:

Registered by June 1, 2017

Resident	$650.00
Commuter	$450.00

Registered after June 1, 2017

Resident	$700.00
Commuter	$500.00

Limited Space: Only 90 spots will be available for The Spring League Showcase.

IMPORTANT: The Spring League Showcase is not a tryout camp. Participants should have NFL or collegiate experience and be able to perform at a high skill level. The Spring League reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject any potential participant it determines to be unqualified or unfit to compete.