Leading women to love & lean on God

About Sue

Sue is a wife, mother, writer, and international speaker. Sue is the president and founder of Leaving Your Legacy Ministries, a ministry to encourage and support women in every stage of life. She has had nine years of training with Bible Study Fellowship where she served in Leadership.

A graduate of C.L.A.S.S. speaker services as well as She Speaks by Proverbs 31 Ministries, Sue has been leading and teaching women to know and fall in love with God's word for over ten years.

Sue is a certified Biblical Counselor and a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors. As a member of the prestigious AWSA (Advanced Writers and Speakers Association) she is honored to be recognized as one of the top National Christian Communicators. Sue is a regularly featured writer for Focus on the Family publications and a frequent guest on Intentional Living, a daily Christian radio program with Dr. Randy Carlson.

Sue is a dynamic and inspirational speaker who challenges thousands of women each year at conferences, retreats and conventions both large and small.

Since she was a little girl, Sue loved Jesus and loved to tell stories. God has combined those two passions to create a communicator with great energy, passion, humor, warmth, and grace!

Sue brings life-changing messages to her audiences. Whether sharing riveting stories about her marriage to the love of her life, Curt, or the trials, triumphs, frustrations, and successes of raising four sons.

Sue and Curt praise God for nearly 30 years of marriage. They enjoy traveling, Chinese food and a good cup of decaf coffee. Her family makes their home in Colfax, Illinois
