Booking Procedure & Cancellation Policy

To secure your booking we require a full payment.

You can cancel your booking at any time and notification must be given to Suze (suze@globalflow.org) in writing.

Regardless of the reason for cancellation, the cancellation fee will be calculated as follows:

* Notification received more than 60 days before the start of the retreat: 30% of the full fee + €25 administration fee.

* Notification received 31-60 days before the start of the retreat: 50% of the full fee + €25 administration fee.

* Notification received less than 30 days before the start of the retreat: 100% of the full fee.

If fewer than 8 participants register by 28 April '16 the workshop may be cancelled. In such circumstances the participants will be informed promptly and registration monies reimbursed.

Health Policy

All registrants must inform Suze Retera / Global Flow of any mental or physical disorders prior to registration, and may be advised to seek medical advice prior to participation.

Participation Policy

There will be no reimbursement for classes missed or services not used. Furthermore, all registrants participate in the classes at their own risk and must employ their own judgment as to which movements and positions are appropriate for their level of training and experience. Global Flow reserves the right to make changes in the schedule.

Insurance

Registrants will be held liable for any damage of the accommodation facilities. It is recommended that each registrant takes out an individual public liability insurance policy.

Upon the signing of this document and the payment of the full yoga fee, the conditions outlined in this document become binding and registration will be confirmed.
