

Charity

I am so looking forward to that time when there is no more need of faith nor hope. I wait for that time when we continue only in the LOVE OF GOD eternally...

For now, we have faith and hope and charity, but know that there is some greater expectation before us. Thus, it is charity that shall endure for us beyond this world wherein for the present time we still abide in faith and hope.

1 Corinthians 13

<sup>13</sup> And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

For now we live in faith for the lively hope and expectation of receiving the balance of God's glory in the 1st Resurrection to which we have the evidence and testimony of the promise of God who cannot lie. We shall all see that thing when He reveals the full redemption of the purchased possession.

Hebrews 11

<sup>1</sup> Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Therefore, now for that which we have not seen our flesh does still rest in hope until the day we all see what is the hope of God's full redemption of which we have already received the earnest deposit and sealing of His Holy Spirit that indwells all the saints.

Romans 8

<sup>23</sup> And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

<sup>24</sup> For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

<sup>25</sup> But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

My whole being yearns for that time when there is no need for faith nor hope for that which we shall attain! Amen

We shall continue in that great Agape love of God eternally. Hallelujah to our Redeemer!

Dr Stuart McCutcheon, Pastor
Church on the Rock Assembly