

QuEST Global Engineering integrates HASK Engineering & Management Pte. Ltd. into its fold

Singapore, July 13, 2016: QuEST Global is proud to announce that HASK Engineering & Management Pte. Ltd., headquartered in Singapore, will now be part of QuEST Global. This strategic acquisition will:

- Increase QuEST Global's strategic delivery footprint in Singapore as well as augment our engineering excellence in the Power Generation and Oil & Gas domains
- Complement QuEST's technical capabilities in Process, Safety, Structural Skin Stress, Piping, Mechanical, Packaging, Electrical, and Instrumentation

Founded in 2006, HASK's engineering services division, HASK Professionals, provides clients with highly qualified global engineering professionals. HASK has a wide network and international presence and delivers locally, in line with QuEST's local-global delivery model. HASK has been successful in capable capacity ramp-up for onshore and offshore solutions in Power & Energy, Oil & Gas, Marine & Offshore, for various projects in Power Generation, Thermal, Cogeneration, Deepwater Drilling, Jackets/Structures, Topsides, Floating Facilities, Living Quarter, Topsides for FPSO, FSO, Process Platform, Specialty Modules, Marine Engineering, Wellhead, LNG E-house Modules.

HASK Founder & Managing Director, RK Herojit remarks, "We are excited about the integration of HASK Engineering by QuEST Global. I would like to thank QuEST for recognizing the entrepreneurial spirit and empowering us. The combination of the two companies brings great opportunity for our customers and employees. Our capability and QuEST's proven scalable processes, and infrastructure will create a very formidable competitive service offering to our customers. We are looking forward to working with QuEST to build a world class engineering service capability for the Energy Industry."

Commenting on the integration of HASK, CEO Ajit Prabhu, QuEST Global said, "We are constantly on the lookout for outstanding engineering talent. This strategic move will strengthen our position in the Energy vertical as well as our delivery capabilities in Singapore. With its strong talent pool, excellent market connectivity Singapore is an integral part of our vision and investments."
