

- Writing and Editing services
- Design, Layout: Newsletters, Pamphlets, Business Cards, Resumes, Sell Sheets
- Public Relations, Digital Content, SEO
- Administrative, Office Services

Students to perform 'Fiddler on the Roof' at Ansonia Middle School

ANSONIA - About 30 students from four area schools are rehearsing the classic musical, 'Fiddler on the Roof,' Ansonia Middle School teacher Lisa Nicolari said recently.

Performances will be at 7 p.m. April 20, 21, 26, and 27 at Ansonia Middle School, 115 Howard Ave. Tickets are $10 at the door. Snacks will be available for sale during intermission.

The show is a production of Bright Light Musicals, LLC

Church in Ansonia to host pancake breakfast with Easter Bunny

ANSONIA - The Easter Bunny will be hoppin' over to First United Methodist Church Saturday for breakfast. He will be at the church, 347 Franklin St., from 9 a.m.-noon.

A pancake breakfast will be served first followed by fun Easter games and an Easter Egg Hunt for all the children!

Cost is $7 per person; children age 2 and under admitted free.

The Easter Bunny will be available throughout the morning for pictures with children and families.

There will be a photo area set up where you can take your own pictures.

To reserve tickets, contact Laura Frouge at 203-654-5115 or frougefam2010@gmail.com

The E-Street Gallery

Visit us to shop and view our local artists

The Valley Arts Council
35 Elizabeth Street • Derby
203.516.0822

Derby Historical Society to hold CT Libations Round 2

Join the Derby Historical Society to celebrate Connecticut Libations Round 2 on April 24.

This year's event is being held at THC - The Hops Company, in Derby, and benefits the Restoration Project at the David Humphreys House & Museum.

Tickets are $30 and includes samples of craft beer and cider from participating breweries, a $7 voucher for your first beer or wine at the bar, a $5 food voucher, and music provided by "Dead Fish for Christmas."

All donations will be matched dollar for dollar thanks to a generous grant from the Persbacker Family Foundation! Last year's total was over $8,800.

As the cornerstone of the Derby Historical Society, the David Humphreys House serves as both a museum and as a hands-on classroom for our "Day in 1762" program; introducing school children to Derby's Revolutionary War Hero, David Humphreys and the region's colorful colonial past.

Did you know, back in 1657, Derby's first permanent settler, Edward Wooster, was drawn to the Lower Naugatuck Valley on the quest of raising hops? Cheers to a great time for a great cause.

Persbacker Family Foundation

Tickets are available by contacting us at info@derbyhistorical.org, or calling 203-735-1908. Tickets must be paid, in advance, no later than April 18th.

Comedy to benefit Spooner House in Shelton

SHELTON - The Valley Shakespeare Festival will perform The Comedy of Errors April 27 to benefit Spooner House in Shelton.

The show will be presented at Il Palio Ristorante, 5 Corporate Drive starting at 6 p.m. with hors d'oeuvres and beverages followed by the show at 7 p.m.

The Comedy of Errors is one of Shakespeare's shortest and most farcical comedies, with a major part of the humor coming from puns and word play.

The Comedy of Errors was first presented as part of Valley Shakespeare's Festival's inaugural 2013 season of free plays in the park. The Festival is pleased to bring this slapstick comedy back on tour to celebrate its fifth anniversary season.

Tickets are $40 and may be purchased at the Eventbrite link here or at Spooner House, 30 Todd Road, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

"We are most appreciative of Valley Shakespeare Festival and our marquee sponsor, R.D. Scinto, Inc., for presenting this unique way to raise awareness and financial support for the services we provide the people in our community," said Susan Agamy, Executive Director of Spooner House. "We hope everyone who likes Shakespeare will come enjoy this production. In an effort to make Shakespeare accessible, Spooner House residents will be invited to attend the play for free and will experience a 45-minute workshop exploring themes and language of the play prior to the performance."

Tom Simonetti, Executive Director of the Valley Shakespeare Festival, comments, "We are excited to break the socio-economic barriers that are often associated with the theater. We truly believe that everyone regardless of situation deserves great performance art, and it is the core mission of our non-profit behind all of our programs."

More information about the show and how it will help Spooner House may be found on the ACT Spooner House website and Facebook pages:

<http://www.actspooner.org/>

<https://www.facebook.com/ACT.Spooner.House/>

The Valley-Voice CT Publications

Blog: www.thevalley-voicect.blogspot.net Newsletter/Web: www.thevalley-voicect.net

For story Ideas and advertising rates, contact:

Patti at pmcv394@gmail.com or (203) 893-8623 Ralph at thevalley.voicect@gmail.com or (475) 228-1221

The ValleyVoice CT Newsletter is published by Alcam Writing & Admin LLC, Derby, CT

© 2017 by Alcam Writing & Admin LLC. All Rights reserved