

COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT FOR PUBLICATION IN THE BRITISH STUDENT DOCTOR

In order that we (Cardiff University Press, a publishing initiative of Cardiff University a higher education institution with a legal address at McKenzie House, 30-36 Newport Road, Cardiff CF24 0DE ("the Press")) can publish your article in The British Student Doctor, we require Authors to assign ownership of the copyright of the work to The British Student Doctor. Please upload this completed agreement as a supplementary file when you submit your manuscript online.

Full/Provisional Title of Article:

Author(s):

("the Author")

1. In consideration of the Press agreeing to publish the article (set out above) in The British Student Doctor, the Author hereby assigns to The British Student Doctor copyright for the full period of copyright and all renewals, extensions, revisions and revivals together with all accrued rights of action throughout the world in any form and in any language (including all media, both now known or later developed). The British Student Doctor may assign its rights under this Agreement, including in the form of a Creative Commons License. Notwithstanding the above, I retain all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent and trade mark rights and rights to any process or procedure described in the Article. This exclusive right to publication includes the right to reproduce and/or distribute the article (including the abstract) throughout the world in printed, electronic or other medium, including the right to authorize others (including Reproduction Rights Organizations such as the Copyright Licensing Agency and Copyright Clearance Center) to do the same, without claim of royalties or other compensation.
2. The British Student Doctor or the Press may decline to publish the article named above in The British Student Doctor with reasonable cause or editorial discretion, and shall promptly give notice of this to the Author, in which case all rights granted herein shall revert to the Author on the giving of such notice.
3. The Editor(s) of The British Student Doctor and the Press are empowered to make such editorial changes as may be necessary to make the article suitable for publication, and will consult the Author if substantive changes are required. A request for minor revisions does not constitute a declination of publication and therefore does not trigger the reversion of the rights to the author as detailed in clause 2.
4. The Author hereby asserts his/her moral rights under the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 to be identified as the Author of the article.
5. The Author warrants that the article is the Author's original work, has not been published before, and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that the article contains no libellous or unlawful statements and that it in no way infringes the privacy or any other rights of third parties; and that the Author, as the owner of the copyright, is entitled to grant this licence. The Author further warrants that all statements in the article asserted as facts are true or based upon detailed research for accuracy and that the article does not contain any matter which would violate any applicable laws or regulations nor is in any manner unlawful.

6. If the article contains any material, including illustrations (photographs, tables or figures), which is the copyright of someone else the Author warrants that he/she has obtained the necessary permission of the copyright holder and that the material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or caption and will supply evidence of such consent and/or permission on request by the Press.
7. The British Student Doctor applies the Creative Commons CC-BY-NC-ND licence to all published articles, unless otherwise agreed. Under this licence, The British Student Doctor retains ownership of the copyright for the article, but allows use by others, including distribution, and reproduction in any medium, subject to some conditions.
8. The Author shall fully indemnify The British Student Doctor, its editorial board, and the Press against all and any loss, liability, damages, costs or expenses (including legal expenses) that The British Student Doctor, its editorial board or the Press suffers or incurs as a result of, or in connection with, any breach by the Author of any of the warranties in this Licence. At the request of The British Student Doctor, its editorial board or the Press, and at the Author's own expense, the Author shall provide all reasonable assistance to enable The British Student Doctor, its editorial board or Press to resist any claim, action or proceedings brought against The British Student Doctor, its editorial board or the Press as a consequence of that breach.
9. The British Student Doctor, its editorial board or the Publisher shall not hold any obligation to take legal action on behalf of the Author, or other rights holders, in the event of a breach of intellectual property rights, or any other right, in the material published.
10. If the article was prepared jointly by more than one author, the Author warrants that he/she has been authorized by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf.
11. This Licence constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any previous agreements between the parties relating to its subject matter.
12. No variation of this licence shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives); and no person other than a party to this agreement shall have any rights to enforce any term of this licence.
13. This licence shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales. The parties irrevocably submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in England and Wales.
14. This licence shall take effect from the date it is signed by the Author, and will be considered as binding for any subsequent revisions made to the article and submitted to the journal.

PRE-SUBMISSION ARTICLE CHECKLIST

Before submission of any article to The British Student Doctor, please complete the following checklist to ensure a complete submission. Submissions which are received without the following items completed will be returned to the author before consideration is given for publication. We advise you to seek appropriate advice if you are unsure about any of the following points.

- Submission is in Microsoft Word format, and in an easily readable font, size 12, and single-spaced. Page numbers are included on the bottom of each page.
- References are in Cardiff University Vancouver style.
- All figures are included at the end of the manuscript, with in-text markers to indicate their intended print position.
- The manuscript is accompanied with a cover page containing the article's full title, all author details, accurate word count, declaration of any conflicts of interest, authorship and originality statements, and an abstract of maximum 300 words (reflections and correspondence do not require an abstract).
- Expected author details are a) corresponding author's name and full contact details (institution, email address, telephone number and address for written correspondence), and b) name, institution and email address of all other authors.
- All individuals identified as authors of the submission meet the ICMJE criteria for authorship. No individual with the right to authorship has been omitted.
- The manuscript is original – it has not been previously published in any other format, in any other publication, in whole or in part.
- The manuscript is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere, and I understand that if the journal accepts the manuscript for publication, either as submitted or subject to minor revisions, then it cannot be withdrawn from the journal and published elsewhere.
- The manuscript does not contain any potentially libellous, scandalous, defamatory or unlawful content, and does not make an improper invasion of the privacy of any person.
- The manuscript does not contain any material for which I do not own the copyright. If the manuscript does contain material for which I do not own the copyright, then I have received written permission for this content's publication in The British Student Doctor, or the material is available under a Creative Commons license, and I have included the details of this at the end of the manuscript.
- I have completed the Copyright Assignment Agreement, above, and will upload a scanned copy as a supplementary file, alongside a copy of this pre-submission article checklist.

FOR ORIGINAL RESEARCH ARTICLES ONLY

- The research within this manuscript received appropriate ethical permission, or if not required, this is explained in the manuscript.
- I have discussed this submission with individuals who were involved in the production of this research, but whom do not meet the criteria for authorship, and received appropriate permission for the publication of this research. Relevant individuals include tutors or mentors who have supervised this research, or other individuals who oversaw or supervised the collection of data.
- If this manuscript contains data which has been collected as part of a larger study, or from a research database, I have detailed this in the manuscript and discussed the submission of this manuscript with the relevant individuals, and sought any necessary approvals.

I hereby certify that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that The British Student Doctor reserves the right to contact relevant individuals or institutions if a breach in this agreement is found.
