

We will regularly meet with financial institution and Illinois state department leaders to get their latest diversity data and suggest ways to make bidding and contracting easier and more accessible for diverse businesses, and promote and facilitate more robust outreach to these firms. We will sponsor trade shows to promote diverse contracting. These events will bring together small business owners and representatives of major financial institutions and state departments and their large prime suppliers to create contract opportunities for diverse business owners.