Re: Request to investigate James Comey for Hatch Act violations

Today, FBI Director James Comey wrote to lawmakers that the FBI was investigating more of Secretary Clinton's emails, stating "I am writing to inform you that the investigative team briefed me on this yesterday, and I agreed that the FBI should take appropriate investigative steps designed to allow investigators to review these emails to determine whether they contain classified information, as well as to assess their importance to our investigation."

As this is an election year, and we are just 11 days away from the date that the American public votes to choose the next President of the United States, I am writing to ask that an investigation be opened into Director Comey for any potential violations of the Hatch Act. The timing of this announcement, accompanied by the vague facts of the investigation, seems as if Director Comey was making a political move, and not a professional one.

Thank you for your prompt consideration.

Sincerely,

Scott J. Dworkin
