

BUFFALO VALLEY RAIL TRAIL

The Buffalo Valley Rail Trail is the result of investment by the Lewisburg Area Recreation Authority, Union County, the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, and the Federal Highway Department.

After several years of planning and feasibility studies conducted by the county, LARA acquired the right of way from the West Shore Rail Road for the rail line from Northumberland County to Mifflinburg in 2009.

The rails were salvaged in 2010 while design was underway for the first phase of the project from 10th St in Mifflinburg to 12th St in Lewisburg. Phase I, including 9.2 miles of finished trail, trailheads, facilities and parking areas at both ends, was completed at the end of October 2011.

The trail revolutionizes non-motorized transportation in Union County. As the first developed off-road trail in the area, it provides an amenity entirely absent until now and becomes a crucial component of the transportation network.
