

“Sharon Vazanna’s A High is another tightly-wound work which focuses on desire. Vazanna, donning metallic aqua high-waist pants, grabs her obliques and twists her body. Her spirals occur on both the lateral and vertical axes to a throbbing electro-nature sound collage. Her body’s sinewy, but also highly contracted, movement transmits the power encapsulated within the human body, its animalism, its instinct, its breadth of sensation. When humans are fully aware of their sensual capacity, it can be overwhelming. A High expresses the body’s vital tension between the anticipation of desire and its fulfilment. Looking at the audience as a predator surveys its prey...”

Lauren Gallagher (Dance tabs New York)