

Trench Prayer

Father, I take courage and comfort knowing that You are my strength when I am weak. I call You faithful in the midst of what seems so horrible and unexplainable. My trust is in You, God. I take Your word, for Your word will not return void unto You. I expect Your word to bring back all that was lost or stolen from me, in the name of Jesus. I pronounce Proverbs 6:31 over my life---all that was taken will be returned seven times. I decree that no weapon formed against me will be able to prosper, and every tongue that rises against me I will show wrong. Lord, I thank You for being a shield all around me. You are my exceedingly great reward, and my shelter is in You. You are refuge and my fortress. There is absolutely nothing that can separate me from Your Love. I am fully persuaded that neither death nor life, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate me from the love of God.

No spirits of fear, anxiety, hopelessness, depression, or worry will plague my soul. The spirit of defeat is displaced by victory. I do not have a spirit of fear, therefore, I boldly say that I have the spirit of power, love, and a sound mind. Lord I take authority over every opposing spirit that comes to contend with Your divine purpose for my life. I declare that I will fulfill the destiny You have ordained for me, and I will not be distracted, I bind the spirit of distraction that comes to confuse and discourage me. I am not moved by what I see! I walk by faith and not by sight. I release the voice of faith over my situation and say that Jehovah-Jireh is my provider. Every need is already met concerning this matter.

I am more than a conqueror. Lord, I thank You for the prevailing anointing that causes me to triumph in the face of adversity. I grab hold of the horns of the altar and refuse to let go. I commit to bless You in the midst of my trouble. Your divine will for my demise will cause my promotion and prosperity. The greater One is on the inside of me. I command the resurrection power of Jesus to come forth on my behalf, in Jesus' name. Amen.
