Humanism: A Grounded Worldview

A weekend workshop about civil liberties, religious freedom, feminism, racism and more

FRED EDWORDS

- Nationally acclaimed Humanist speaker and Road Scholar professor
- Retired Executive Director of the American Humanist Association
- Past Editor of Humanist magazine

PRESENTED BY

Center for Secular Humanism

The Center for Secular Humanism is honored to have the opportunity to bring Fred Edwords to Farmington Hills. This workshop is presented each summer at a Road Scholar camp to sold-out audiences. The comprehensive two-day class explores issues and ideas, both historic and modern, that examine the great questions of life. You'll be an active participant in the learning process that includes Socratic dialogue, lectures, audio-visual presentations, and discussion sessions. You'll discover the global Humanist movement, leaving you inspired with deepened values for modern living.

Saturday April 1 & Sunday April 2

Saturday's class runs from 9:30AM to 5:30PM
Sunday's class runs from 9:30AM to 3:00PM

Registration fee includes light breakfast and lunch, both days

Pre-Registration: $40
Registration at the door: $45

Center for Secular Humanism
at The Birmingham Temple
28611 W 12 Mile Road
Farmington Hills MI
248.421.8174

info@centerforsecularhumanism.org

Complete this Registration form and make check payable to: Center for Secular Humanism.

Name(s):
Street:
City:		State:	Zip:
Phone:	Email:
Number registering:	Amount paid:

Make checks payable to: Center for Secular Humanism. Mail to: 28611 W 12 Mile Road, Farmington Hills MI 48334