

Into the Sun

Lyrics: Paul Oxley Music: Niklas Rosström & Nette Talsi

I watch you lie beside me now
Yesterday, we were just strangers,
across a room.
There's a light in your eyes, I'm reaching out, trying to hold it, in my hand.

I'm falling, falling, coming down
afraid to land, I'm falling..

Into the sun. I´m falling, falling, into
the sun
I´m falling, falling, into the sun.

I feel your warmth on my skin, I push aside all my uncertainty. I feel no harm.
Get too high, go too far, melted
wings tumbling in blue skies, You touched my soul.

I'm falling, falling, coming down
afraid to land, I'm falling ...

Into the sun. I´m falling, falling, into
the sun
I´m falling, falling, into the sun.

High up in the sky tonight, a comet in a blaze of light Shooting in towards the sun, I'm coming home.

I'm falling, falling coming down
afraid to land, I'm falling...

Into the sun. I´m falling, falling, into
the sun
I´m falling, falling, into the sun.
