

THE COMMUNITY HOUSING HUB

THE FRONT PORCH GATHERING

The University of Texas at Austin
Center for Community Engagement

COMMUNITY HOUSING HUB WORKSHOP Building Economic Equity and Sustaining Cultural Presence

The University of Texas at Austin's Center for Community Engagement, alongside the Austin Justice Coalition invite community members to attend the launch of the Community Housing Hub Workshop. While Community Housing Hub will pilot in the Blackshear and Robertson Hill neighborhoods, all community members are welcomed to attend this free public workshop on housing affordability and equity. With support from UT Law students a part of the Entrepreneurship and Community Development Clinic, preservation experts and additional partners (Austin Area Urban League, Austin Revitalization Authority, Austin Impact Hub and more), you are invited to gain information around the following areas:

- Affordable Housing
- Tax Relief
- Homestead Protection
- Historic Designation
- Cultural Preservation

DATES AND TIME

Saturday, October 12, 2019 at 10 a.m.

LOCATION

Blackshear Elementary School | 1712 East 11th St.

Breakfast will be served.*

The Center for Community Engagement's Front Porch Gathering represents UT's open door to the Austin community, providing time and space for community collaboration. The monthly gathering works to address issues of equity, disparity and access through active engagement and connects UT research and resources with community organizations and members.

