

The Liverpool Half Marathon course is an interesting mix of city roads, park pathways and a four mile promenade. With just a slight incline near the end of the first mile and a sharp but relatively short incline up Parliament Street to Princes Road the course does provide an excellent opportunity for good times.

INTERESTING FEATURES ALONG THE COURSE

Anglican Cathedral

Palm House Sefton Park

The Mersey Ferry

The Three Graces Pier Head

Albert Dock

COURSE MAP

