

Membership Information

Your membership dues are the lifeblood of the Chamber. We value each and every member as a vital partners in our community. We welcome volunteer assistance; those with background in website development, branding or marketing are particularly needed at this time.

Marketing & Internet Presence

A new website is under development and beginning last month (October) we now have website statistics & demographics. Last month we had 364 visitors, 86% of which had not visited our site before.

Additionally, we will be exploring ways to increase our internet presence in targeted areas so more visitors are aware of our beautiful scenery and abundant recreational opportunities and our business that stand ready to serve their needs.

Newsletter

Quarterly newsletters providing information on news, activities and functions in Crawford Country and beyond will be emailed to our member businesses and will also be available on our new website. As a Chamber member, advertising in the newsletter is free so be sure to email the information you would like included to: info@crawfordcountry.org.

Advertising

We will be doing a pilot project on advertising your business through various social media sites, starting with Facebook. This is currently a free service to our Chamber members so take advantage. You can email your ad or camera ready art work to info@crawfordcountry.org. Be sure to send us a link to your website and we will include it in our promotion.
