UCRS Overview

- UCRS reduces duplicative IRB reviews for clinical trials, speeds trial activation, and minimizes PI/study team effort
- UCRS is poised to respond to a shifting national IRB Reliance landscape:
  - NCATS IRBRely Project
  - NIH Proposed Rule of single-IRB review
  - HHS Notice of Proposed Rule Making (NPRM)

UCRS Activities & Achievements

National Recognition

UCRS showcased at upcoming PRIM&R conference

TrialQuest featured at AMIA last March

Expansion & Efficiency

26 reliances to date vs. 5 last year

Reliance approval time= 11 days and decreasing

More types of studies (e.g., NIH-funded)

Partnerships

Formed IRB Advisory Group

TrialQuest & UCOP

ACTG piloting trial through UCRS

Exploring cancer center collaborations

Demand for Reliances Increasing

- Over 350 duplicative IRB reviews in past 3 years
- IRBs, Cancer Centers, and disease networks all face increasing # of protocols
- Sponsors seek multisite trials with minimal delays
- Upcoming NIH requirement of single-IRB review

Progress & Opportunities

- Increase UCRS throughput and capacity with technology tool (early-Dec. deployment)
- Work with campuses to generate revenue
- Develop long-term plan to staff UCRS and create a sustainable service offering
- Make TrialQuest available to research teams, enabling earlier identification of reliance opportunities
