

Psalm 23

Before I go through the lessons, I would like to quote Psalm 23 for your reference as well as inspiration.

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I can't even wrap my mind around this very fact that the Supreme and Almighty God, the same God who rules the universe, will take notice of a mortal human being made of dirt. Though powerful, God sent His Son to offer us salvation and gives us the opportunity to be part of their divine Family.
