

Father, in the Name of Jesus, I thank You that the chastisement of my peace was upon Jesus on the cross, and that part of Redemption includes redemption from fear, anxiety and worry. I receive that now, in the Name of Jesus.

Lord, You have commanded us not to worry, to take no thought about our circumstances. I am asking for supernatural strength in this area—that You will grant me ability beyond what I naturally have, so I can walk and live in total peace every day, no matter what my circumstances are.

When the temptation comes to worry or be fearful, help me to resist the enemy so he will flee from me. You have not given me a spirit of fear but of power! I take hold of that power today in Jesus' Name! I declare I am free from fear, free from worry, free from depression and anxiety. I refuse these things in my life from this day forward, and I stand against them.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

When you pray in faith to live in total peace and lay hold of the peace Jesus died to deliver into your life, you will never be the same. You can experience the kind of peace that has nothing to do with the absence of trouble—it's a life with nothing missing, nothing broken. It's a life lived well!

5 Steps to Hope for The WEARY BATTLE from 2 Chronicles 20:15-17

Don't be afraid- Fear is such an instinctive response to trials. We allow ourselves to be afraid of what may or may not happen. We allow ourselves to fear how circumstances might turn out. We also allow ourselves to be scared that the battle may never be won. That is not what God calls us to. He tells us not to be afraid.

Don't be dismayed- Discouragement plants deep seeds of bitterness that can grow into anger, depression, hate, or hurt. Discouragement can fool us into thinking that the battle isn't worth fighting. It can make us want to give up. God wants us to keep hope, to trust in him, and to have faith.

Let God handle the battle- It is in our nature to struggle and fight for victory over the battles that we face or to try to avoid them by running and hiding from them. God calls us to seek Him continually and rest in the fact that He is not only working in our hearts and in our lives, but also our situations.

Stand firm and hold your position- We can get a little wobbly when the battles rages. The things going on all around us can seem to pull us in all directions and make us doubt our stance. God calls us to stand firm in His truth and to hold the position that He has called us to.

PEACE I LEAVE YOU
