The Bible repeatedly commands us to not fear, which comes in the form of worry, anxiety and various phobias. It is Satan's primary weapon, and he responds to it the way God responds to faith. He uses fear to challenge the promises of God and steal hope from Christians.

We need to operate in the hope of God's Word. If you're in fear, you're not in hope. If you're not in hope, you're not in faith. If you're not in faith, you're not in love. It's easy to see how Satan can use fear to hinder many Christian lives.

So, when the Fear Test comes to your life, do you pass or fail? If you haven't been making the grade in this area let's learn how to take authority over fear, trust in God's love and promises, keep the devil under your feet, starve fear, and feed your faith!

I believe in you ladies!
