

Charles Eastin Outstanding Service Award

To recognize the contributions of the hundreds of volunteers and leaders in the agriculture, food and fiber communities who are dedicated to increasing public awareness of agriculture's vital role in our society the Charles Eastin Outstanding Service Award will be presented to an outstanding individual who has contributed as an advocate for communications between farm and city.

The nominee must be over 25 years of age and actively engaged in agriculture at the local, state and/or national level. The person may be nominated by anyone active in agriculture. The completed application should be forwarded to the state by email at info@agday.org or online at www.agday.org . The deadline for submissions is February 1, 2017.

Nominee's Name:

Company:

Street Address:

City or Town:

State:

Zip Code:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Name of Organization Making the Nomination:

Contact person:

Street Address:

City or Town:

State:

Zip Code:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

How many years has the nominee been active in promoting agriculture?

What is this individual's affiliation with an organization?

Describe how the nominee helps spread the message of agriculture to the general public?

What evidence is there of the individual's impact?

Describe how this nominee has contributed to spreading the message of agriculture to the general public:

What evidence is there of the impact of this individual's actions?

Signature of individual submitting application:

Date: